

WOR Privacy Policy

The Wings of Rogallo club, officers, staff, and committee members, (collectively referred to as “WOR”) respect and protect the privacy of its members. However, in order to conduct normal WOR club business, WOR collects and maintains a minimum set of personal information. Additionally, in the interest of personal safety, WOR collects and utilizes information that can expedite emergency operations in the event of an accident. This privacy policy itemizes the information collected and the ways that information may be distributed.

- 1a. WOR does not rent, sell or otherwise distribute member information to commercial establishments.
- 1b. WOR does not distribute member information to WOR non-members except as indicated in the following statements and described in the information groups.
- 2a. WOR may share personal information with other WOR members.
- 2b. WOR may share personal information with public service professionals (e.g. police, fire, medical, parks dept.).
- 2c. WOR may share personal information with the USGHA in order for the USGHA to administer the liability insurance program.
- 2d. WOR may share personal information in the event of legal action. WOR will respond to subpoenas, court orders, or legal process, or to establish or exercise legal rights or defend against legal claims.
- 3a. WOR may use personal information as necessary in the conduct of normal WOR business.
- 3b. WOR members who gain access to private member information are bound by these privacy rules. If a member violates these rules by letter or intent, he/she is subject to disciplinary action.

Three types of information are collected by WOR for each member. These are:
